

Data Center Info Sheet

Flexibility and Reliability

Cedar Knolls I

Parsippany II

Parsippany I

1719 Route 10 East - Parsippany, NJ

Location

The Octagon data center is in a commercial office building on Route 10 in Parsippany NJ. Parsippany is roughly 40 minutes from Manhattan and 30 minutes from Newark Liberty International Airport. The data center conveniently located near Routes 24, 80 & 287 making it easily accessible by car and bus; the data center is also roughly a mile from the Morris Plains train station which offers Midtown Direct train service. Facility amenities include office space and a cafeteria.

Flexibility

The Octagon data center in Parsippany offers multiple colocation options ranging from single rack units, 1/4, 1/3, 1/2 and full open racks and locking cabinets and small private cages.

Power Systems

Single power system comprised of Eaton-PowerWare UPS systems with individual battery validation systems backed by diesel generation. The power system is capable of delivering single pole (120v) and double pole (208v) power to customers. The facility offers both flat-rate and metered power billing options.

Cooling Systems

Multiple Liebert dry-cool CRAC units.

Security Systems

- Biometric authentication to all secure areas / doors
 - Fingerprint reader
- Two-Factor access (Proximity card / biometric fingerprint reader)
- 24 / 7 / 365 on-site security
- High Definition CCTV network covering all interior and exterior strategic locations and access points
 - 90 days video retention

Connectivity

- Net Access Corporation
- Extended Cross-Connect
 - 60 Hudson St. - TelX - NYC
 - 25 Broadway - Telehouse - NYC
 - 165 Halsey St. - Equinix - Newark, NJ
- Major On-Net Carriers
 - Verizon Telco
 - Verizon Business (former MCI / UUnet)
 - Level 3
 - Optimum Lightpath

Tier

The Parsippany NJ data center meets or exceeds the specifications of a Tier 2 data center as defined by The Uptime Institute

SAS-70 Audit

The Parsippany NJ data center undergoes an annual SAS-70 Type II Audit